- Why is this week's topic important for teamwork?

This week's topic is about cooperation. I think that cooperating in a team will help everyone to be motivated to do a group project. Cooperating in a team also shows our character. I think that cooperation is the key for a great teamwork. Its not really teamwork when a team is not working together.

- How do plan on contributing to the team, besides completing your tasks?

I think that I have contributed to the team and will continue to contribute to the team by first being present and by cooperating with all of our activities. I think that cooperation in a team does not only mean work, but also being present for all of the leisure/fun activities the team has.

- How does your experience relate to other experiences you have had?

I have had experiences where someone in the team prefers to work alone and will leave the team in the air. It is not a pleasant experience. I have also experienced being in a team where everyone is doing their role and cooperating in any activity there is. I think that cooperation in a team is such a great experience.

- Tell me about what you taught someone? And what did they learn that they didn't know before?

I taught my brother about cooperation in a team. My brother in particular is very social so he likes working with a team, but he mentioned about his other teammates that does not really participate/ show up in their group meetings. He told me that it would be a great experience if everyone takes a technical teamwork class that emphasizes more in working as a team. He has learned that cooperation is important both for everyone personally and everyone as a whole.

- If this was a religion class, how would you relate this week's topic to the gospel?

I think that this topic relates to the leadership in the church. In the bible, Moses was having a hard time presiding over all of the Israelites and helping them with all of their problems. Moses asked God, and that is when leadership came to be. The leaders of the church are a team and they do their best so that the members will have great activities and great programs in the church.
